Conference Venue Information

The Cavalry Club

4801 Troop K Rd.
Manlius, NY 13104

The Cavalry Club has a long history, beginning in 1904, a few years after the Spanish-American War, a group of men from Syracuse joined together to form a cavalry troop. The troop became designated as Troop D, 1st New York Cavalry, a National Guard Unit. In 1907, the State of New York built an armory in Syracuse, known as the Jefferson Street Armory, to provide year-round quarters for the Troop, with facilities for boarding and exercising horses, conducting mounted drills indoors, and for a minimal amount of small arms fire.

After more than 40 years of military excursions, the Troop Farm lost half of the original purpose - the military facilities - so some Company C members suggested forming a club opened to all veterans of the original Troop D or any of its successor units. In 1946, they formed the Cavalry Veterans of Syracuse, Inc., a corporation with express goals of fostering patriotism, providing recreational and social activities for its members, and promoting the spirit of comradeship and respect for which Troop D, 1st New York Cavalry was known. About a year later, membership was expanded to include people congenial with the Cavalry Veterans and their goals.

Designed by nationally recognized Golf Course Architects, Joe Lee and Dick Wilson, the Cavalry Golf Club opened to instant acclaim on June 26, 1965. In place of the old horse barns, stood a sparkling new club house and nestled in the sweeping curve of Limestone Creek, a showcase golf course now stood - a place where, at one time, the troopers and their mounts had prepared to go to war. Enlightened leadership, spearheaded by old troopers from Company C, played a key role in this development, as has the active participation of the associate membership.
